The new ILG cartridges are designed to work in some of the hottest color printers and multifunction machines on the market today, including the OfficeJet 9110, 9120, 9130 and Business Inkjet 1200 Series and 2300 Series printers. Altogether these cartridges fit more than 32 machines. End-users will experience the same vibrant, true-to-life colors, crisp text, sharp images and batch-to-batch color consistency provided by OEM cartridges, while enjoying higher page yields and lower prices.

ILG estimates that their newly introduced cartridges represent an astounding 15% - 20% of all HP aftermarket inkjet cartridge sales! "These cartridges are in phenomenal demand," states Joe Shulman, COO. "They're huge sellers, and we're happy that we can offer them with ILG's rock-solid quality. Sometimes people forget that ILG is more than just a toner-house. ILG inkjet cartridges are manufactured with the same care and stringent quality standards as ILG toner cartridges."

ILG is offering these high-quality, high-volume products at significant price savings to dealers. Orders are always shipped same-day, and cartridges can be blind drop-shipped directly to end-users. All ILG products are 100% Guaranteed for Quality and Performance.

Since 1989, ILG has earned a reputation for manufacturing superior-quality compatible imaging supplies. They offer a huge selection of Laser Toner Cartridges, MICR Toner Cartridges, Inkjet Cartridges and Thermal Transfer products for all the most popular printers and fax machines. ILG's revolutionary system of strategically located warehouse and distribution centers allows them to offer Next-Day Delivery anywhere in the nation
